The Las Vegas High School Alumni Association

Is a membership-based organization for those who have a previous or current affiliation with Las Vegas High School, inclusive of preceding history and two currently active locations. The LVHSAA serves the interests of the Old School (1930-1993) which currently is home to the Las Vegas Academy of Performing Arts and the New School (1993-forward). The LVHSAA advocates for the historical significance and legacy of Las Vegas High School. Funds raised by the LVHSAA assists in social and scholarly activities inclusive of the All-Class Wildcat Reunion and grants and scholarships to benefit current students.
