

KENNETH C. CORY (Class of 1961)

After graduating from LVHS, Kenneth Cory earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Brigham Young University in 1967. In 1971 he earned his Juris Doctorate from American University, Washington College of Law.

He then worked for Senator Alan Bible. After serving as an Assistant U. S. Attorney and a Deputy City Attorney in Las Vegas, Judge Cory was appointed as the first Federal Public Defender in Nevada, where he achieved the highest rate of acquittal of any federal public defender office in the country.

In 2004, Governor Kenny Guinn appointed Judge Cory to the bench to fill the Clark County Eighth Judicial District Court judgeship vacated by Gene Porter.

Judge Cory is the son of Calvin and Beth Cory of Las Vegas. His father, Calvin Cory, served as the first President of the Clark County Bar Association.

Judge Cory is married and has six children.

These biographies are based on research and could contain discrepancies.
If there are any excerpts you feel should be changed please feel free to contact me at Dave@lvhsaa.com

WWW.LVHSAA.COM